6.0 Information Agenda

6.1 Transition Services, Vocational/Peak Information & Earthworks/JESSE Student Work Experience/Job Shadowing Programs

Ms. Lisa Rizek gave a short update on all these programs to the Superintendent's.

6.2 Changes in the SE Layout

Data collection staff are aware of this, however, it is a change in the process. A list of students served in Non-Pub Schools was shared as they do not appear on the report sent out to compare. (OD, UN and Culver do not have any). Please ask data people to call to resolve conflicts when they come up. We need to have clean data on both ends.

6.3 Go Claim Contracts

2018 Go Claim Contracts were shared. Please sign and return at the December J.E.S.S.E. Board meeting.

The total income earned for each Corporation for the last 2 years was shared. The money earned is put into General Funds. State Medicaid audits are done every three years.

6.4 Graduation Pathways

Mrs. Holland has been meeting with Guidance Staff to open dialogue and spread the word about projected changes on how it may impact Special Education Course planning. The major change will be in the area of Certificate of Completion.

6.5 Future PD

December - New Staff - Article 7

New Staff has been invited to attend this training based on their self rated skill level. Some will come to the office on a weekly basis for a month and others have chosen to do a self guided study.

December 19th - Certificate of Completion

Ms. Amie Howie, from DOE, will be at Plymouth HS at 10 AM EST. Mr. Albert Hanselman and Mrs. Linda Holland are joining together and holding this meeting. Mr. Hanselman will meet at 9 AM with HS Guidance and then Special Ed. will follow. Guidance for sure should attend and Teachers/Administration are optional.

January 11 - Project Success

We will be continuing a series of 4 meetings with Life Skill Staff. This will also focus on the Graduation/Certificate changes.

7.0 Other Business:

7.1 The next JESSE Board Meeting date is December 11, 2017.
